• How to set up and manage Touch ID on your Mac You'll be asked to register a fingerprint for Touch ID as part of the MacBook Air or MacBook Pro setup process.. You can register additional fingerprints at any time, though You can have up to three fingerprints per user account on your Mac, five in total across accounts.. It's a form of biometric security that's meant to be more convenient than entering a passcode or password, especially on iPhones and iPads we use hundreds of times a day.. You can register up to five fingerprints on the MacBook Air or MacBook Pro, with a maximum of three fingerprints per user account.
